To Be More Christlike

This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts" (Zech 4:6)

How many New Year's Days have you celebrated in your lifetime? Today adds to the list. Will today be the starting point for a series of resolutions that will be kept? Or will those resolutions be broken before sunset today?

Making resolutions is a good thing. Too often, however, we try to keep these resolutions in our own strength. Actually, most of us do not have the well power to do so, and we fail. This year can be different. God's admonition to Zerubbabel, is for us as well. By God's Spirit we can keep every good resolution we make, whether we make it on the first day of the year or another day.

This can be our finest year if we will be guided by God's Spirit daily. Our greatest resolution should be that we will be more Christlike and determine to do all we can to speed our Saviour's return. This aim should be our goal in life. We must do our part to bring about the outpouring of His Holy Spirit in the later rain.

Let us begin each day with prayer. "As you receive the Spirit of Christ - the Spirit of unselfish love and labor for others - you will grow and bring forth fruit. The grace of the Spirit will ripen in your character... When the character of Christ shall be perfectly reproduced in His people, then He will come to claim His own." (Christ's Object Lessons, pp.68,69).

Horace Greeley, the American journalist, said, "Fame is a vapor, popularity an accident; riches take wings; those who cheer today will curse tomorrow; only one thing endures - character."

The character of Christ is the greatest character of all. It can be ours if we surrender ourselves to Him. We do not inherit His character. It becomes ours only as we study His life and standards and practice them day by day. His Holy Spirit will guide us. Let us begin this New Year by determining that we will always be led by His Spirit. This is the key to the perfect life. It will unlock the gates of heaven so that someday we will enter and see Jesus. Amen
