Knowledge or Action

William L. Barclay

"Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness." (Ps. 143:10)

In Minnie Haskins' book The Desert we read, "I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year: "Give me a light, that I may tread safely into the unknown." And he replied: "Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way."

David asked for alight to guid him. He had faced many temptations. To some of them he had yielded, and experienced unhappiness. David longed for the land of uprightness, and he knew how to do God's will. That is the key to the "land of uprightness." (Ps. 143:10).

Too many of us have the mistaken idea that if we know God's will we eventually will reach His Kingdom. There is difference between knowing God's will and doing it. Two travelers were discussing the many places they had visited. Suddenly, one of them launched into a passionate discussion of life preservers. When asked about his strange interest he replied that he had crossed the ocean many times without mishap and never had had a life preserver in his hands, until on the resent trip. On that occasion the ship had run aground on a submerged rock and began listing bably. The passengers and crew were given life preservers. The man said that he did not know how to put his on. He had been familiar with the sight of life preservers for years and had mistaken that familiarity for knowledge.

There have been many people who have read God's Word, who quote Scripture readily, who can discuss many Bible doctrines - yet have never become acquainted with the Author of the Bible. They have no desire to go into action and teach others the wonderful plan of salvation. This experience reveals a dangerous lack.

As we journey to the "land of uprightness" we must not let our familiarity with God's will be a substitute for doing His will. God's Spirit is able. If we are willing, He will teach us to do His will, and when Jesus comes He will lead us into the "land of uprightness." Let us make that aim our prayer this day.
